RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Dear Sir:

This paper is a Response to the Office Action mailed from the office on February 12, 1998 in which all claims were rejected. This paper is being filed with a Petition for a two month extension of time to file the response, along with the requisite fee, and thus the period of response is extended to July 12, 1998. In the event a fee is required that is not otherwise accounted for, please deduct that fee from Deposit Account 12-0080.

Applicant expressly acknowledges and thanks Examiner Church for the opportunity of a personal interview on June 15, 1998 to discuss a newly proposed set of claims in relation to the cited art.

IN THE CLAIMS

Amend the claims as follows:

Cancel claims 29 through 45, and add the following new claims.

46. (new) A flat cellular X-ray grid comprising two flat surfaces as an upper surface and a lower surface, said grid having at least one longitudinally extended side and a focal point and a plurality of throughgoing cells extending through said grid from one of said surfaces to the other
